Destructive Fire at New Albany-Pork House Burned-Loss Ninety Thousand Dollars.

About 3 o'clock yesterday morning a ire brake out in the extensive pork honf llamiltou & Lewis, in New Albany, and a short space of time the whole buildng was wrapped in one sheet of fire, and the pork house, together with the slaugh-tering, packing, hanging, engine, bulkng, and lard houses, were totally destroyed. The fire was caused by letting off the gas rom one of the lard tanks, which ignized rom a candle in the hands of a workman. The alarm was immediately given by the engineer sounding his whistle, but the fire gained such headway, and the flames spread with such fury, that those abou the establishment were lurried out, unable to save anything but the books, paper and money. At the time of the alarm, Mr Lewis, one of the proprietors, and five o Ix others were asleep in the office, and earely made their escape, such being the capidity of the spread of the devouring ele The packing at this house had been go ng on for some time, and every portion of it was filled with the hog product. In the lard tanks it is estimated that there were 18,000 ibs of lard, and in the bulking-house ,300 hogs in bulk, all of which were con med by the devouring clement. The moke house contained 3,000 harrels of ork, and 1,000 tierces of lard, which was saved, together with 700 head of hogs valued at $70,000 and the house at $20,000 hus making the tood loss $90,000, or which there were $67,000 insurance as lo lows: In Louisville offices $17,000, in London and Liverpool $15,000, and $500 each the following offices: Eina, Hartford, .orrillard, Hartford City, Merchants', Char er Oak, and Washington. The $17,000 inurance in this city was on the building. This loss will be severely felt by our New Albany friends, as it deprives one hundred and twenty-live men of employment. We presume that the remainder of the hogs to e slaughtered by this firm will be killed n this city at the house of Hamilton and son Revellle learns from a private source that a number of prominent wealthy citi zens of Mississippi have donated various sums for the purpose of providing the State with the means of placing herself on a war footing, and otherwise preparing for any emergency which may arise in the coming crisis. Among those who have thus contributed of their substance are the following: Gen. Clark gives 100 bales cotton; Miles 11. Metiee gives 100 bales; Chambers, of Coahoma, gives 100 bales; Jeff. Davis gives $1,000 in money; General Lautar gives $1,000; and Col. R. T. Archer, of Clalborne county, gives bonds in the Mississippi Central Railroad to the amount of over $2,000. Others have, and will emulate the patriotic example of the gendemen above named, by giving largely of their means. The Reveille also knows of one geutleman in that county who will give one hundred bales per anunm during the war, should a fight be forced upon us; and another who raises over 1,000 bales, who will give his entire crop, if it should become necessary. THEATER.-The operatic drama lome, Sweet Home, which was performed last night, went off with great spirit, and was received with the greatest favor. Miss Richlings sung a number of little bullads in a style nucqualled on the stage, and charmed the audience with her graceful and finished acting. Mr. Peter Richings was very amusing as the Chevalier. He is one of the very best specimeus of a quiet, neat, and finished school of acting, pecu liar to the old school of genteel comedy .-

The comedy of Peggy Green was admirahly performed. To-night the new drama of Miriam, or The Daughter of the Stars, will be per-formed. Miss Richings personates the character of Mirism, (the Daughter of the Stars), and will sing Benedict's celebrated song of the Skylark, and the exquisite gem from Wallace's opera of Maritana, of "llappy Moments." The afterplece is the English comedy of a Roland for au Oliver-Miss Richings as Maria Darlington. In this piece she sings four beautiful songs.— We can heartly recommend these accomplished artistes as worthy of the largest patronage from the public. We hope to see a crowded house to-night.

FRESH ARRIVAL OF NEW GOODS-PINCE TO SUIT THE TIMES.—We have received 150 pieces of plain and fancy Dress Silks that we will offer 25 per cent. less than the cost of importation; 200 pieces Figured DeLaines, at 1214 cents; 100 pieces French Merino, (all wool,) from 65 cents to $1 60 50 pieces Valonrs, at 45 cents; 40,000 yards Prints, at 634. 7, and 8 cents, madder col ors. We stand ready to co-operate with Mr. BELL or the Journal, or with any others from whom in times past we have ost widely differed, in any movement calculated to secure the rights of the Southrn States in the Union for the present and gnarantee them in the fature, or, if that he unattainable, looking to the peaceable separation of the States and the esablishment of a powerful Southern Confederacy. And on the other hand, we are ready to dissent from the views and oppose the action of the most trusted and houred of our political associates in the past who may favor the submission and degradation of the slave States, or propose the coercion of seceding States back into the onfederacy, or advocate civil war in the Union to secure Southern rights. We desire to do nothing that may have the effect of perpetuating political differences among a people who should now be united-political differences that serve ouly to encourage their cuenties in their aggressions, and to paralyze the efforts of their friends. To the dominal,

We pity the blind infatuation of men liorated by the perils of this hour, leads them on in the pursuit of mere party ends, though each step they take but adds to exsting complications, from which it is more than doubtful whether the wisest states anship can extricate the country. The people, thank God! are actuated by no anch madness, and will not follow those whose acts demonstrate their want of pa-triotism and trustworthiness. Lincoln is elected—and what of the country? What does Keutneky say to this? In South Carolina we have spoken—the decree has gone forth, and it only wants the seal of authority—whis Union is wants the seal of authority—"this Union is ended," our watchword, "resistance to tyrants is obedience to God." There is not a Corporal's guard in South Carolina opposed to innucdiate secessiou, and just as sure as the Convention meets, so sure will we second from this Government. Yesterday we had a mass meeting of the District, and I heard speeches from Judge Magrath and others. Almost perfect union prevails. The papers will show you our noulnation for the Convention. No Union ticket could get a hundred votes in the District; and this is but the echo from the uponnains to the

I have seventy men in my company: we are drilling every night except Sunday, and are making ourselves perfect soldiers. I have never seen a finer body of men. I have never seen a finer body of men. I hope our services will never be needed; but if they should be, we are ready. I cannot convey to you an idea of the wild outhusiasm which pervades South Carolina. No power on earth can stay the revolution. It has been inaugurated by the people. Politicians are pressed up to the mark by outside pressure. All they can now do is to direct. The stringgle is to keep back the current untit the Convention shall meet.

By every mail I fear to read of some collision between South Carolina and the General Government. Commerce is reel-General Government. Commerce is recling and rocking like the earth under a mighty earthquake—the banks are sus-mighty earthquake—the banks are suspending—merchauts are going down—lactors are failing—and anid the erash comes the cry, "Out of this accuract Union"—"Let commerce and wealth and business stand hack, while we bring into being a mighty Southern Republic."

The fire has passed the Savannah, and Georgia is in a blaze. Politicians who a month ago moulded the sentiment of the State, now find themselves horse along in the mighty carrent of a revolution which they are powerless to control. They must be in the current or overwhelmed by it. The same spirit of revolution is passing up the Mississippi, and you will soon feel its shock even on the banks of the Ohio. In our State, if Mr. Calhoun in all his might could rise from the dead, he would be as a feather in opposition to the movement.

The ministers are ahead of every hody clse; and the doctrine of "secession" ce-boes from pulpit to pulpit throughout the State!

A Suggestion.

A Suggestion.

Editors Louiseille Courier: My deep solicitude for peace and quiet is my apology for seeming intrusion on your apace. I offer this suggestion:

Let the Constitution be amended so as to remit to any State the political right of peaceable secession by two dethicrate votes of her free white male inhabitants over twenty-one years old—votes to be taken after six months notice, and to be six months apart. This secures dispersion and prevents precipitation.

Having this remedy in their own hands the people will not rush into revolution. The details could cashly be arranged by a general law, the retiring State paying the Federal Government for the forts and other public buildings.

I toske this further suggestion as an amendment to the Constitution, viz: That the people vote directly for President with out the intervention of electors.

On several occasions the organization of a company of cavalry has been discussed by numbers of the young men of the county, but the attempt to get up such a company has ended merely in conversation on the subject. Knowing that at the present time the young men are at lebsure, and that there are within this county numbers who are willing and auxilous to form such a company, we therefore propose a meeting of the young men of the county, as Jeffersontown, on Wednesday, December 19th, at 1 o'clock, P. M., to take in consideration the subject. Come out left me buye a good company, one of which the State may never be sabamed.

Dear Sir:—I have read your letter with deep interest; but the time is past when I can do anything towards directing the passions of our countrymen. What I could I have attempted long ago, and under anyless far more hopeful itlan any that now exist, as, amongst other things, my published letters to Mr. Smanner, Mr. Seward and Mr. Breekhuridge, may attest Al that is left to me Is to stand in my lot look the future steadily in the face, any abide by whatever may come, if the North insists on using the National Government to pub down chavery—or if the South is sists on using it to perpetuate and extensiavery—in either case the continuance of the National Union is impossible.

Becoming frightened as she approached the house by the barking of a dog, she passed beyond it, and humedlately got bewildered, and wandered about through fields and valleys, and over hills and mountains, woods and thickets, without resting until half-past three o'clock the following morning, when she reached the house of Mr. David Knode, about two miles south from Frostburg, where she was kindly received, after an exposure of nearly seven hours to the intense cold weather, the thermometer, during a portion of the night, being only two degrees above zero. Soon sfor her less became known the bell of the Lutheran nurch was rung, and the clitzens turned out almost en masse, and in parties of 50 or 60 searched the nountains and delds mail three o'clock in the morning, without success. After daylight the search was renewed and continued until 9 P. M., when news of the safety of the little girl was received. It is supposed she wandered over a distance of twelve or fifteen miles, as she says he was compeled to walk fast to keep herself warm.

Making a Sensation on Chestnut Street,—A sensation was caused on Chest-uut Street, this morning, by the appear-ance, on the fashionable south side, of a lady who was dressediu a peculiar fashion We are not sufficiently familiar with milits descendants of l'harsoh. The hat was an exception to the general gypsiness of the make up. It was a black beaver, of a shape so nearly masculine as would have delighted the stong minded wearer of a Bloomer costnine. But the great feature of the dress was the scantiness of its lower extremity. Like Chity Sark's skiri, it was in longitude sore scanty, not coming much below the knee, and displaying a development of stont calf and ankle not often seen on Chestnustreet when the walking is good. The lady of the abreviated skirt was gazed at by all who passed, and during her passage through the street she was tollowed by a crowd of boys who enjoyed the exhibition greatly. Who the lady is, and why she dressed so fantastically, are questious that are involved in profound mystery.—[Philadelphia Bulletin.

harmony of our whole church on this announced, unbroken in the least degree to the present time.

Yet is not for us, then, to inangurate as a Synod, any movement toward a separation from the Northern branch of our church. This is not the time for such a movement, which would be in advance of the action of the State. Nor are we the proper body to take such a step. It can only begin to the harch Sessions, where Presbyterian averaginy ties, and must issue forth through the Presbyteries.

"With regard to the political duties of our churches as composed of citizens of this commonwelth, the Synod of Sonth Carolina is not called upon as a Synod, even in the present extremity, to give advice or instruction. LOUISVILLLE, WEDNESDAY MORNING DEC 12

We again surrender our columns to our correspondents, among whom, we are happy to say, are those who have heretofore acted with each of the parties that bave contended for political ascendancy in the State. Bell men, Douglas men, and Breekinridge men have all addressed their fellow-citizens through our columns in the hast few days, their communications appearing side by side, and enunciating enbstantially the same sentiments, and giving in all important points the same advice. Letter from Hon. T. F. Marshail.

She cities some precedents, too, of very great authority in a case of this sort. She easy tall governments are ineffituted among men for the good of the governeed, and especially for the security of property, and the rights of the wests against the strong, minorities against the strong, minorities against the strong minorities are inefficiently in the ends of its creation, and either directly attacks the rights it was designed and pledged to protect, or proves itself unable or nuwfilling to detend them, it is a breach of the authority or or secape from such tyrauny or imbeddity and protect themselves by their own force. This is not an abstraction. It is asserted clearly in our Declaration of Independence, and carried ont by a sween years' war. We are all familiar with that case. It is in point. The North American Colonies were members of the Eritish Empire. Their rights were clearly defined in their charters. They were entitled as Englishmen, and such, indeed, they were, to the benefits and protection of the British Empire. Their rights were clearly defined in their charters. changeable value of the article with which she pays. A very homely illustration will make my meaning clear. I have an article worth eight dollars, for market. I want is that. In Lexington hats are at five dollars The city of Louisville, for the cuoonrage ment of her own hat makers, lays a duty of three dollars on all hate imported from Lexington, which swells the price to eight Mow, whether I buy the imported hat of the Louisville hat, it costs me eight dollars, when, but for this duty, I could have got it for five. I have seid my article for eight dollars. If I had got a hat for five I should have lad three dollars I my pocket; as it is, I have not a dime. Hanot the value of my article been diminished three dollars? If, on the other hand, burchase from the Louisville inster, I pockets the three dollars, in the enhance price of his article, and I have not the med ancholy satisfaction of knowing that unmoncy has gone into a common treasury but has been simply transferred from my pocket into that of another, without any consideration whatever, andby mercopertion of law. connected with the Ohio tiver at several points. Her communications, indeed, extend by railroad to the lakes and to St Louis. If she goes out of the Unionalone, enjoying a direct trade with every manufacturing country in Europe, paying no duty upon her great exports, and impossing none upon imports, her merchants will be enabled to undersell those of New York, Philadelphia, etc., I suppose, forty per cent., perhaps more. It will also enable the English Importers, in the culprocent of a free market in America, to give a higher price for cotton. Merchants do not act from political consideration, far less from fanatics! Profit is the only notice with them. It is shardly to be expected that Louisville, Cincinnati, or indeed any of the cities of the Northwestern States, would buy in New York or Philadelphia when they could obtain all Europe an manufactures through Charleston vicar of the duties imposed by the Government of the United Nates, and also of the duties imposed by the maxigation acts to support our own shipping. The independence of Carolina and the establishment of a free port at Charleston would affect most seriously the revenue laws of the United States, the commerce of New York, and the nesturation by which the North the North enter into a long inquiry as to the

of the present state of things. Th tion of the Republican party and cause. The difference in the characcanse. The difference in the characte ideas, and origin (though all English, were taken from different classes of lish society), and institutions of Northern and Southern people, genea different form of civilization and ners—the greater progress of the North population, and by consequence in 1-oli cal power under the Constitution—six cal power under the Constitution—are the remote causes. But high above them all is the condict in the adjustment of a general commercial system between the real interest of the cotton growing States, who enjoy from their peculiar product great advantages in the European markets, and the manufacturing States, in which the Southern States have not the least interest, and whose industry has to be sustained by taxation in the shape of revenue duties, taxation which falls heavily on Southern production without any corresponding advantage to their whatever. Embargo, nonintercourse, war, protective tariff, our have wrought learful resuits, little auticipated by your authors:

The question of alayers, then, has really

The question of alwery, then, has really nothing to do with the Southern movement. Were slavery abolished there, which is interly impossible, the causes of quarrel would still remain. It is a question for the south, and I know they hold hat next slavery in those regions is indispensable to the culture of cotton. I have never thought so; that econtrary, I have ever believed that under a system of free laborthe population of the Southern States would bound forward with a progressive force white, would very soon in point of numbers, throw them far in advance of the Northern States in that particular. The culture of cotton involves the lightest labor of any other agricultural employment. Boys and children may be profitably employed in almost every stage of it till it is fitted for murket. I do not believe there is anything in the climate which would prevent the white race from laboring in the field. I say the abolition of slavery would not remove the causes of quarrel between the manufacturing and planting States. The production of cotton nuder a system of irec labor would not be abandoned; ou the contrary it would be increased immensely—the distribution would be different, very different from what it is now, but in twenty years the amount produced would be aggravated. I say then that there is a real conflict, not so much hetween slave and free labor, as hetween Northern and Southern industry. It my opinion the establishment of a free port at Charleston, the other States remaining in the Union, will make her the richest city on the continent, and ultimately change the entire commercial relations of America. Carolina has long uncitated this, and has selected the occasion to strike with admirable judgment. The General Government is bankrupt, and has shown herself atterly limbeelle and lineapsile of exerting a learly Constitutional law in the North. Vermont refused the other day to repeal her Personal Liberty Bills. The fanatesia portion of the Republican particles in a body, and free jours beceatablished at Baltimore as a wond give her a monopoly in the free trade of the United States, and crender her at once the great depot of all the cotton grown in the South. Commercial circumstances would dietete this and render it Inevitable. Until very recently Charleston had no communication by railroads with the country back of her, while New York, Philadelphis, and Baltimore were extending theirs with aimost miraculous energy. The consequence was that Charleston furnished no ndequate market for European gaods. Even if she had held a free port, under these clrcumstances it would have availed her noithing, since the Eastern cities could have paid the United States dutice, and undersold her in the great markets of the West. Who would have bought goods in Charleston to wayon across the mountains, consuming months in the passage, when the Eastern cities lay within three or four days of them? The freight and the time would have overbalanced the duties. But

The Scuthern road to be I have referred as connecting Modec, with the Ohlo, is the best built I have ever traveled on. With these munications, Charleston being a free , would be enabled to exchange the to cotten of the South sgainstan equal of European goods, which her then needed markets in her rear would be rely competent to absorb, to consume, to pay for. I observe that the merical laterests in Charleston are united a man in favor of separation. That would have another inestinable adage to which I have just referred. In state of things you will hear no more on their cotton, designed for foreign kets, being breinght constwise, and anged ar sold in the city of New York, that cost will be spared, when impos from Europe with duties off can

It is in vain to talk about the Constitution and Union now. Lega internation and Union now. Lega internation and Union now. Lega internation which made it and which one can accure it is trampled under foot, selectorest guarantees scattered to the inde, the Government in every part placed beolutely in the hands of a consolidated benoerable sectional majority, united pon principles and objects which will hast orderer. In all our former party contests, on the parties were national and had national objects in view. The fleuds who have got up this revolution, for it is no less, were a placed and repudiated by both. Rejected of all, they started candidates of their own. Differing to be cure in their views of national and awowed and practised habit national, and avowed and practised when such archives for the rights guaranteed by the Constitution. The parties North and South intermingled their votes. Southern and Northern States were found together an either side. A Democrat in Maine was h intermingled their votes. Southern Northern States were found together ther side. A Democrat in Maine was ame animal with a Democrat in the new South, a Whig in Massachusetts a Whig in New Orleans or Tennessee was a Whig in New Orleans or Tennessee er Kentucky.

All this is changed. For morely the Presidential tickets were always divided batween North and South. Not so now. Hilpols and Maine, Lincoln and Hamlin, with a proclamation that slave and free States annot live united under one national Constitution, now rule. Slavery must therefore be abolished. How? the naodna operand they have not as yet explained. We can conjecture, however, what those would do who celebrate the anniversary of John on conjecture, however, what those would on who celebrate the anniversary of John rown is execution. Anauniversary to be usuded by the two Massachusetts Sena-ors and the first orator in New England, sendal Phillips, who maligus teneral using ton, and places Toussaint L'Over-

Washington, and places Toursaint L'Overure, the St. Douingo negro chief, and folin Brown, for above him, indeed, I am feld, considerably in advance of our Sacitors, whom it did not please to abolish drivery. I'r peat it, that for the present as least, tha Union is dissolved in the overthrow of the Constitution. We are still a material, but not united. The rights of a miner section are scorled at, violated, consuled united for and that receiving as ampled under foet, and that rection, as he Conscitution now stands, has no power, mbs; antial power to protect itself. Paper passances are o no avail—we can giver avea deeper, or more solemn, under high er sauction, than our fundamental law. It has availed us nothing. What promisee, that paper checks, can avail against the rampant will of overwhelming majorities, the unprincipled ambition of political demagnes, or, most unmanageable of all, the france tury of fanaticism. It is no time now to talk about streamented between now to talk about star-spangled banners, and Banker Hill monuneuts. That very Massachusetts who planted the tree, and watered it with her blood, has contributed owerfully in laying the axtoltaroots No. o. Kentucky should study seriously, firm-and attentively the circumstances which urround her, and look facts full in the surround her, and look facts full in the face without winking. Among these facts, the most important is the certainty of the separation of South Carolina. I can easily perceive the consequences, if she be permitted to seeded without apposition from the Government. I have stready in-dicated some of them. It is the case of an east of the Government to prevent the secession by force that we should consecessiant by force that we knowledge concerning the purpose an possibily be reised in any of the slar states. The merch of a Northern army-Abolitionlats of course, for Democrate any school will not join them, nor willeoservatives march with such a force under the orders of the President elect—it march of such an army by land will be reised.

servatives march with each a force under settle carders of the President elect—the march of such an army by land will be resisted, and conquered. Should the President approach her by sea, a hundred thousand volunteers will rush to defend her, and effectually prevent the landing of the Federal army. Such an effort will be the signal of the instant formation of a general coolederation of the slave States, unless it be Kentucky, and if I am at all nequalited with her temper, it will be found very difficult to restrain her, maked and unarined as whe is, and placed in a position of such extreme danger. Should the General two-trument attempt to blockade, aye, there is the greatest danger of all—should she attempt it, the South will look for aid an the navies of Europe. I know that the law of nations prohibits one power to interter with the rebel provinces, or in the civil discensions and broils of another. Imperious necessity, or great and over bearing interests, especially when connected with power, never fall to ride over the law of nations, or international compacts.

ed with power, uever fall to ride over the law of nations, or international compacts. Louis Napoleon would doubtless delight to thrust his imperial paw into American atfairs. I have often beard it said in the North, for these things have been contemplated here, that England, with her Abolition principles, would let the warraginest slavery go on and would not interfere. New England and the North are the rivals, and the very formidable rivals, of the British manufactures. The material for the most important branch of that species of industry is obtained from the slave States. To preven the exportation of cotton for any length of time from America would revolutionless her Government. England is not at all fanatical, but a cool-headed, farseeing people, who pursue steadily and length of time from America would revolutionle her Government. England is not at all fanatical, but a cool-headed, farsceling people, who pursue steadily and most sugaciously her own interest. Besidus, by this time, the entire South would confederate and hecome one party to a new revolutionary struggle. In this case, Mr. Lincelin would have to blockade every port from Baltimore to New Orleans. This would undoubtedly bring on British, perhaps French, interference. It would involve me too far in questions of political economy to point out all the advantages, in a commercial point of view, which Great Britain would acquire by the dismemberment of our Empire and the catallishment of a Southern Republic. I have already indicated some of them. They will readily occur to every merchant, and, indeed, to every intelligent man. The whole revenues derived by the United States from dutles upon British goods are not paid by the American consumer. The British merchant feels it chiefly in two ways; first, in the disminished market, by the introduction of his American rivals; and, secondly, in the necessity imposed upon him, in order to hold any share of the trade, to lower his own prices, as far as is cansistent with any reasonable profit. It is exceedingly probable that the British Gov runuent, in her commercial treaties with the new Republic, in consideration of the immense advantages she would derive from a free market and a free unrigation in her trade with the South, being artler, importer, and purchaser, would be induced in her entirely to remove, at least very materially to reduce, her own duffes on the other a gricultural products of the Southern States besides cotton. A relaxation of the dance on tobacco, grain, beef, &c., would completely compensate those States which do not grow outen for any lose they ought small her hostern market, in consequence of any lateruption of the trade between them.

onsequence of any Interruption of the tradebetween them.

The signs of the times Indicate abundantly that the secession of the South will be the signal of a general dissolution of our Republic. For this there are many causes. Without reasoning about it, the evidences that such will be the fact are before us. The States and Forntories on the Pacific will undoubted by form an independent Confederacy, and in all truth and candor ought to do it. The United States, po soon as she acquired the Territories, should have set herself to work in good carnest and with all her energies to connect the port of St. Francisco with the Misclassippi. She had the means. Mr. Buthrie left twenty millions curplus in the Treasury. That is all gone, and God knows how much besides. Scoretary Cobb, it is said, has left a deficiency of twenty millions. That const, although upon the United States being involved in war it would of course be also involved, in the present state of communications could not possibly be defended, either hy land or so. Her fine port and her opportunity to monopolize the entire trade with Asia against all the nations of the world would be unavailing, unless she be connected in rapid communication with the Mississippi.

Texas has already declared that she will again raise her old banner—the lone star of independence. She has tried one Confederation, she sairs, and it has failed, she will not try another. Missouri, too, promises to creet herself into an Independent Republic, and if she does, will most probably be the richest and nost powerful of any of the fragments.

New York, Dec. 11.—The Three' correspondence says that Mr. Proceed, bearer of the President's Message to South arolina, was also charged with the duty of consulting the State authorities acto their purposes after the ordinance of secession was passed. He returned last evening, and reports everything quiet and no danger of a collision with the Federal Government. To-day the arrangement is perfected, and things remain in stolugue until after commissioners shall have failed to arrange for a peaceable separation. If you wish a fine head of Mair, use LYON'S KA. shall have failed to arrange for a peaceable separation.

Secretary Thompson will soon follow Mr. Cobb. He entered his office to-day, but did nothing more than look over a tiw letters on his table. Cobb has at last regigned, but his successor has not been nominated, although ramor says differently. One report is that Mr. Guthric habeen named, and another that Mr. Holt takes the Treasury, and Hon. L. O. B. Branch the Postoffice Department. Still another rumor is that Mr. Schell goes into the cabinet.

The Herald's Washington correspondent says that Mr. Buchanan has tendered the office of Secretary of the Treasury under President Pierce, and he has accepted by telegraph. THE LOUISVILLE FOR Eighteen Hundred and Sixty-Oue. The events of the jear before as will be fraught with a greater interest to the people of the whole country than those of the exciting period through which we have just passed—as thrilling in their nature and as a portant in their results as thay have been. For the first time in the history of our country, a political party, purely and strictly sectional, has sucreded in electing the Chief Executive officer of the nation, and thus obtained control of one department of the Federal Government. This has alarmed the people of the other section, and precipitated movements looking to a description of the Union. The whole country—mel the people of all the States alike—are despired and equally interested in what concerns the welfare of the American edition. of every American citizen, whether in the North or the South, and whether at h me or abroad. We are evidently surrounded by perils of no ordinary magnitude—dangers that may burel upon ne in all their terrible reality at any hour. No man worthy of liberty can rest in neconcerned ignorance of even's now daily op-mering in all parts of the country; and a knowledge of these matters can best be obtained through such a assurpapar as the WEEKLY LOUISVELLS COURSES. Nor are those the only things now transpiring, or about to transpire, in which our people must lake deep interest. On the First Monday in

THE RIVER Was falling very slowly ves-terday, and was about it a stand in the eve-ting, with six feet two laches water in the canal by the mark. During the previous twanty-four hours the river had fallen only as, fuch. The weather has cleared off fuccaing cold. ichnati yesterday the river had ful At Cincinnati vesterday the river had fallows in three inches, and at Pittsburg it was rising with over fifteen feet water in the channel. That is a good rise, and a very favorable coal boat tide. Though the Southern market is pretty well empylied with soal, it will be well enough to send along a little more in case of a freeze up.

The Cumberland at Nashville continues to recede, with only four feet water reported on the shoals.

The Clipper, the boat that sunk in the Cumberland and was raised again, and docked at Paducsh, arrived here yesterday

OFFICE LOUTSVILLE COURIER, 1 Trespar Evening, Dec. 11, 1860. The general features of the movey insi-kel remain unchanged. Instrument things remain unchanged. Instead of things wing easier, as was anticleated, they kei reinam nuchanged. Instead of things growing easier, as was anticipated, they cominue to get worse, and though the demand to day was only moderate, perties experienced great difficulty in expeniating loans. The banks are why discounting for those who have special claims upon them, and then the paper offered must be gift edge and have but a short time to ren. There is no change to note in murrent money. The rates of choonni are as before reported, with but a small amount of leasiness cone. The demand for hastern exchange was only small, and in most cases was metal 1 premium, the bank note There is nothing doing in New Urleaus, and we quote all yad, a remium.

The general market continues stell and heavy, with only a small amount of husiness in a retail way doing. The domand for four is small, and the market cleases dull and heavy at $4 to for the, $4 75 for superfine, and $$\overline{6}$ $25 for the extra grades. The holders are anxious to self but are unable to find purchasers. This day last veer flour was selling at $5 55\overline{6}$ $5$ and wheat was in demand by millers at $1 25\overline{6}$ $5$ for prime red and white, while this year the market is dull, stocked if for the retail was light, end as millers and devices we musting to make any offer for $1, farmers are not inclined to brigg their crops to the market. There is had a small demand for corn, and the sales have been limited. The semand has been principally from a bak

The grocery market remains very duil, but prices are atendy, with a small demand for sugar for items consumption at 69/66

Tye, as to quality. The receipts have been only moderate, but the stock on hand has been greatly mereased. At this time last season, sugar was in demand at $1.000 moderate, but the stock on the hands season, sugar was in demand at $1.000 moderate, but the stock of which are the sales at 28/630e for prime new plantation, while last year it found a ready sale at 47.00 moderate, but changed, with small sales at 18/620e for prime new plantation, while last year it found a ready sale at 47.00 moderate has come to a perfect stand still, and socking worthy of notice is doing. Moss pork is quiet, with no demand, and we quote at $15. The stringency of the money market is still affecting the market. On this day last year mess pork was selling at $15.00 moderate is saled at 15.00 moderate string the market of that of last year, with a prospect of as good a demand. Parties are not disposed to make any contracts further than what they how calready made, as it is as much as they can do incest those made. There is a fair order demand for bacon, with sales no fill orders at 85 for shoulders, 100 for rib and 125 for clear sides. These are the rates asked by jobiests in filling their orders, but it largelot at they could be purchased below these figures. There is nothing doing in land.

. The New Orleans Pronytine of Saturday The movey markel continues in statu que outside loans are made in rate instences agtravani rates, but as a general rule there no settled price for anything. The suspension of several prominent knows has romewing travened the pressing demand for money, with out increasing the shapply, so that practically we are no better biff. But in the meanwhold we are no better biff. But in the meanwhold the banks ale daily growing stronger and being already in a position to withstand cuy as sault, they will thorryly begin to look around for casual investments. In fact, there is on in climation to enlertain propusals for new discounts, though on a limited foother, but it is feeling in held in abeyance until we can arise at more definite idea as so the course of the New York banks.

In the money marked we have no charge to note. We heard of some few sales of these class short paper at 12, and 12@15 are the quoted advantage of the class. There is still but little doing outside of bank; at the same time the wants for legitimate business are small, and the manner in which our merchants stand upon the midst of distruct, is good proof of the pun-dent and safe manner in which they have be-conducting their beginness. conducting their busines.

Hog Itema.

The Cincinnati Gazette of this moruing says of hogs and provisions:

The receipts of hogs are light, comprising only 4,000 head since Saturday, but moderat as are the offerlags, they are in excess of the demand. About 1,000 head sold to-day at from 35 for fair averages down to $4.75 for light, and in the afternoon heavy hogs were offered at $5, and late in the day 200 be were obtainable at $4.75. Packers do not seem disposed to take hold, and it is doubtful whether, in the present condition of things, with politics must ters unsettled, and financial affairs very clean bayers would take hold freely at even $1.00.

The condition of the trade is altogether more gloomy, and the bottom apparently further below the serface than at any previous time this season. There was more disposition to be when stress were in the neighborhood of $5 than there is to layest now at $4.75. Provious some stress were in the neighborhood of $5 than there is to layest now at $4.75. Provious some synathised with long, and the market closed nominal at $14 for mess pork, and 4.55, and 6.5% for green shudders, sides and ham, Lard was obtainable at $4.75. There was to demand for any article except in the small way. The Clucknati Gazette of this more

EUROPA: CAPE RACE, N. F., Dec. II - The straniin Furopa, from Liverpool December, t, via Queoustown 24, was bearded off res newsyacht. She will be due at Haltwon Wednesday. The Atlantic and Edinburg arrived out on the 50th utt.

There is no political news of importance,
Italiau affairs were unchanged. The gar-rison of Gacta had made a sortie, and were rison of Gaeta hadmade a sortie, and were repulsed with great loss.

The American money crisis had caused specie shipments from England, and the Europa had a considerable amount on board. Large shipments were expected to be made by the Atlantic, which is to sail on the 5th. These movements had caused, on the 30th nit, a removal of the withdrawal of gold from the Bunk of Eugland, which had previously reduced its rate of discount to 5½ per cent.

Tuceday's Proceedings. Washington, Dec. II.—Senate.—The House bill to provide for the payment of outstanding Treasury notes and authorize a loan, &c., was taken up. After someremarks from Mr. Rice against, and Mr. Cameron in favor, on mollen of Mr. Rice it was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The resolution was taken up relating to that portion of the President's Message relating to secession.

outstanding freesary notes and authorize aloan, &c. was taken up. After somermarks from Mr. Rice against, and Mr. Cambers of the committee of the proposed of the president's Message or Enteresolution was taken up relating to that portion of the President's Message or Eating to secession.

Mr. Hale offered a resolution that the Committee on Military Alfairs be instructed to Inquire whether the expenses of that branch of the public service cannot be reduced without detriment to the safety of the country, and if so, that they be further linestructed to report to what extent and what particular brauch or branches can be dispensed with or reduced. Resolution was adopted.

Mr. Bigler then took the floor, having yielded it gesterday. He said the would go with the Senator from Illinesis, with the country from the impending danger. "Mr. President, for weal or woe, I am a Union man. I am for the Union as made by one fethere. I am for the Constitution and the Chion." Mr. Bigler encluded by saying that "in Pennsylvania and New York here were more votes than all the States threatening secession. The Republican party has gained list lest vitery. Let us, then, remail together.

Mr. Verson said that the amendments will be made so that a State may be sued for damages to the amount of value for slaves refused to be given up. Such a law is worthless. Mr. Pugh said: Do you hope to continue the Union from the extraordinary speech just heard? When the people of any State, Territory or community do not desire slavery, my right arm shall go from the socket before I will force them to accept it.

Mr. Iverson said: I refer you to my speech of February 23d of last year, when I was in the chair. You did not say "yes" then. I refer to the Burns fegitive slave case.

Mr. Fugh.—That the only case.—
Mr. Iverson read from the Globe to prove that Mr. Pugh did not adhere 10 what he had previously stated to this session.

Mr. Pugh—Let me read the rest. [Laugh-ter.] I contradict that the Fugitive Slave Law was trampled under foot— Mr. Iversou—Twenty years ago a report was made by the Virginia Legislature, proving that $10,000 worth of slaves were lost annually from its limits by their heins fugilives.

Mr. Pugh—I do not believe that all the slave States have lost $100,000 by their the grives.

Mr. Douglas—Like many other laws, the Fu live Slave Law is not enforced in every $1aie.

Mr. Gwin—If alman runs off a borse, his loss is a pecuniary consideration only, but lo steal a nigger, it is something more. I wish the strong arm of the Government to discharge its functions in Government to discharge its functions in Government to Aw was trainfied under foot—
Mr. Iversou—Twenly years ago a report

Mr. Gwin—I do not uphold the scatinent of stealing horses or negroes.

Mr. Dougha—I speak only as to the non-zecution of the law. Mr. Fitch-I know that in my Stale, for e last twenty-five years, there has been at one lustance of the rescue of a fugi-Mr. Powell—Some time ago a negro ran away from Kentneky to Illinois, and the Governor of the latter Commonwealth did overnor of the fact of the state of the stat ver in Kentucky.
Mr. Powell-The gentleman is evidently was tassed came from a distinguished son I Virginia.

He had entertained an opinion that the Southern members should withdraw and leave the Republicans to submit a report for consideration, but this could not be done. The Constitution was sufficient for the protection of Southern rights if excented to the letter and spirit. If our Gazeriment rests for its construction on public opinion, he would have no hope trom that source, nor could it be preserved by compromise or the use of the sword.

The Republicans have destroyed the only bond which can bind the Union. The subject-mester referred to this Committee subject-matter referred to this Committee did not belong to this House. It grew out of prioriples and systems in the North eth Btates, directly at war with the safety ate with the States.

The House voted and refused to excuse Mr. Hawkins, 16st eileneb welld be con-strued but baken to serve on the Com-billite, wished to say with all deference and good feeling for those who voted against his request, that he would not serve. Mr. Boyce asked to be excused trotu ser-against his request, that he would not serve.

Mr. Boyce asked to be excused trotu service on the Committee.

Mr. Buith, of Virginia, objected Mr. Birntithought the fefficial to excess well-check are exthacted hary, after they have made up their minds upon mature reflection, and in justice to their respective States, that they cannot serve. He was satisfied that the committee did not express the sentiments of the various sections. The Representative's of South Carolina allo only remain here a few days longer—why refuse to excuse Mr. Boyce' Is force the mode and manner of instituting nicasures with a view to restore peace and good feeling in the country?

Mr. Smith, of Virginia, repilled thin he would not use force. He was one of those who refused to excuse Mr. Hawkins, and now allur the lecture of Mr. Burnett, he felt it his duty to vindicate his vote. Present affairs are big with the fate of the Republic, and discussion on the question was not likely to do any good. He, however, expressed his amprice and not rification that the Republican sine of the Househad refused to participate in the discussion.

Mr. Curtis wished to say that his party had not refused to discuse; he would do se at the proper time. He wanted the committee, of which he was a member, to have a lair hearing.

Mr. Smith, resulming, said he expected the opportunity would have been presented of ashibiting the different views of members as a means of influencing and acting on the committee, and hence he could not excuse Mr. Hawkins, because if this he done, Florida would be unrepresented.

Mr. Burnett, In an explanation, said the resented.

Upon the adoption of the address, objection was made by Mr. O. S. Halstead. Jr., who regarded the wrong about equal on both sides. He thought the address ought simply to declare against any attempt to trainpledown the authority of the General Government.

Com. Stockton replied at considerable length. The address was then laid upon the table, and the resolutions adopted, amid much confusion, but by a large vote.

Mr. Rushing, a Republican, attempted to speak on the address and resolutions, and was proceeding to show that there was no wrong at all on the part of the North, but entirely that of the South, when, and great confusion, the chairman came forced dead the it was address that great confusion, the chairman came for ward and said that it was evident that the
